Disappointing...I bought this on the spur of the moment for my Kindle to read with my 3 1/2 year old granddaughter I was hoping for some illustrations (which were similar to the design on the cover) to be able to discuss with her, but did not find what I expected. The flow of the text was rather limited and mundane. For me, it felt trendy, uninspired and less than engaging.

It was ok. The plot was great for young eyes and can help them read, however there is a lot of punctuation errors and a lot of silly mistakes. With a little more thought and rereading you will be one of the best kids author out there!

Alice the princess of Atlantica was practicing with Sky the dolphin a diving and she has a friend name Jacob and he also have a dolphin name Roller and Alice went back to the castle and was eating dinner and her father the king told Alice that she is gonna participate the tourment and she was excited and she ask her dad if Jacob and Roller could come too. And he said yes and Alice swam fast as she could and told Sky and then they told Jacob and Roller and the last race I was scared if Atlantica team won or the Aquatica won and the last part you have to find it out. I think this is a good book because I love dolphins.

My 2-year-old loves this book! The pictures are so cute and the story is just the cutest dialogue ever. Really worthwhile to get this book for your little one!

i thought this wud b a good read for me but it was 2 babyish not worth trying unless ur in kindergarten or first grade. its not even interesting!

Difficult to follow Poorly written dumb and go nowhere

It's just weird that the boys think the girl's can't do sports & think it's just fun to bully girl's. Not cool ^ ^ ^ !
