Customer Reviews

I have most of the play along series and they just have some great selections. The fact that this one had Hoochie Koochie Man pretty much sealed the deal for me. Great stuff for begginers to people like myself who are always looking for new stuff and people to play with.

These Hal Leonard play alongs are great listen tools.

I haven't had the time to use the book as much as i would like, but until now it seems very accurate

(both musical notation and Tab) and great fun. The song selection is nice and covers different blues styles. Excellent for beginners to intermediate players with an interest in the blues.

The mix on the audio CD is awful - you can't hear the bass for crap, and even changing the balance so you're only getting the left side has so much other band in it the bass is difficult to pick up. I'm really disappointed - one thing you expect from a bass play-along product is the bass isolated on one channel so you can pick out the bass syncopation - this product gets two thumbs down for that.
